FROM START TO finish

G.F. Corcoran, Advisor

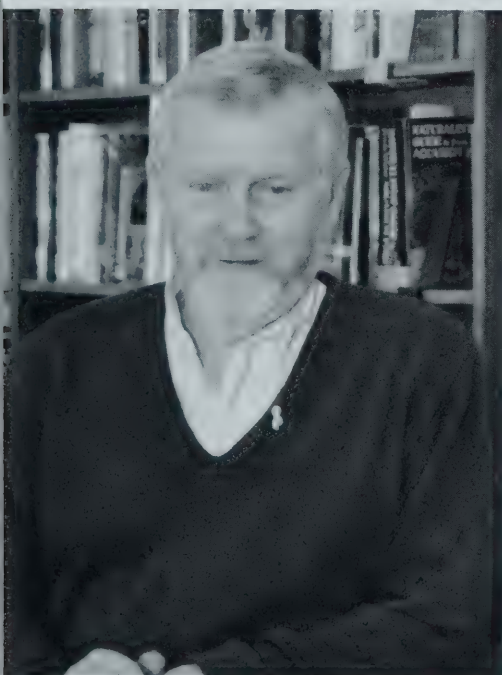

The Crew

E d i t o r s

STUDENTS HAD TROUBLE MEETING DEADLINES, DEADLINES . . . . . EARLY THIS YEAR, MAKING THE YEARBOOK A LITTLE LATE. EVEN THOUGH WE GOT OFF ON A SLOW START, IT HELPED US TO WORK HARDER EACH DAY TO FINISH THE JOB. WORKING ON THIS PROJECT WAS A REAL EXPERIENCE AND A REWARD SEEING THE FINISHED PRODUCT. A BOOK OF 128 PAGES, THAT REFLECTS THE LAST FOUR YEARS OF HIGH SCHOOL, THAT YOU'LL LOOK BACK ON FOR THE REST OF YOUR LIFE.

WE'D LIKE TO THANK OUR YEARBOOK ADVISOR SHOWN ABOVE, MR. CORCORAN, FOR ALL HIS PATIENCE AND HARD WORK.

THANKS TO THE PEOPLE IN THE YEARBOOK COMMITTEE WHO HELPED OUT AT THE FEW MEETINGS WE HAD. EVERY EFFORT COUNTED. EXTRA SPECIAL THANKS TO MATT DURSIN FOR ALL THE TYPING AND TO ERIN BARRY FOR HELPING OUT IN HER SPARE TIME.

Girls' Soccer

After a summer of playing together, the team was ready for the new season. With many returning seniors, we brought leadership, friendship, and spirit to the team. It all came down to the last game for the Green Wave girls in order to make the tournament, but with much support and excitement the team pulled together to walk away with the victory.

On behalf of the team, we'd like to thank Mr. Kent for putting up with us and all of our personal questions and also Mr. Schlicting for all his support and taking us home on the bus. To the parents, we'd like to thank you for all the support you gave us these past four years. Thanks to the underclassmen for all the friendship and memories we've made and good luck next year.

As for the seniors, after playing together since we were four years old, it won't be easy to say goodbye. Never forget 99 bottles of Gatorade on the wall, wind and rain, eating, being animals on the bus, "We love you Jeffrey" (oh yes we do!!), MOTIVATION CHECK, and most of all our unforgettable friendship!

V.I.P. students are nominated by each department on a monthly basis. Students are given recognition for academic improvement and involvement in special projects. Types of awards include gift certificates and certificates of achievement.

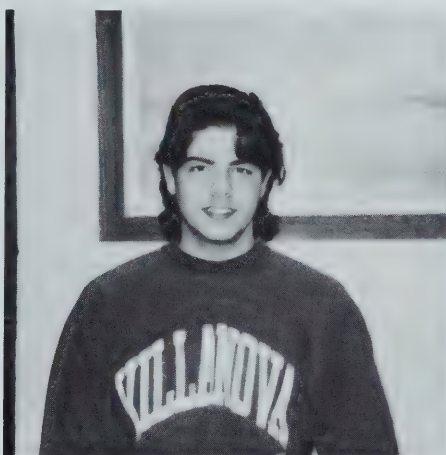

The Student of the Month awards are presented to outstanding students who have achieved academically and have been involved in the school in a variety of ways. This program is sponsored by the Abington Rotary Club. Students receive a plaque, $50.00 bond and are invited as guests of the Rotary at a dinner meeting.

The Marching Band reached its apex in Toronto, Canada, earning a Superior rating. Thus ended four years of field competition, in the best way, for many seniors. The long hours of practice may have ended as well, but the residual effects — discipline, pride, and desire to do your best — will last a lifetime.

Class Prophecy

In ten years, I see Sarah and Jay P. still just friends, I see the so-called "clique" still hanging together, making our N.H. trips, I see Jay Gillis still in his garage.

I see Mrs. Duerden with one permanent hair color.

I see Sarah still not having her license, E.B. and M.D. married, Pink Floyd getting back together, the underclassmen still here.

I see Pat Burke in prison, and another trip to Canada.

I see myself (Dave Sampson) not only a client for hair club for men, but also the President.

I see Sarah Karworski & Jay Pike married.

I see Jill still liking frosh, and I see Robb Johnson looking as good as he does now.

Anne Marie Donahue will be writing screenplay in which I, Angel, will be singing the soundtrack. Maybe even playing the lead role. Anne Marie Donahue will be on Sat. Night live. Angel Girvalakis will be singing for Disney's animated movies.

I, Dawn Kelso, see myself with a higher tolerance.

I see Jim Brown running his chain of Bowser's.

Very soon, I see the name "Dursin" in lights, big bright lights, in big cities.

I see D.G. still without his license.

I see Brad Byrne hitting Mike Doherty in the back of the endzone with no time on the clock beating E.B.

We "9" will all still be trees.

I see the Freshman realizing that are bigger than them is annoying to upper-classmen & a danger to their safety.

Kerry & Kim will still be creepers, Jill will still be looking for babes, everyone will still be hanging out in Kerry's cellar, & Dennis will be married to Peg Bundy.

Jo will still say "muffin," Jen will still not know what a "Barry Bonds" is, or "who" the "host" is, Anne Marie will be writing for Saturday Night Live, Jen will still be saying "Je suis un ananas."

I see J.S. & M.B. married and still sleeping on the floor, I see J.L. still talking about moist slacks, and I see Dursy still going to 3rd period study in the cafeteria.

Cliques won't last. The people you didn't acknowledge will be the ones you want to know the most. Hemp will be legal. Bill Shea will still be a senior.

I see Erin, Kim, Andrea, Sarah, Trisha partners in the Boones wine Co. and I see Jay Pike still trying to get his clothes to match.

I see Jay Pike pushing his Ford Escort out of the parking lot of A.H.S.

Mr. Kent will still be the best looking English teacher.

I see myself, M.M., P.K. and B.W. being best of friends still.

I see Sue living in the woods, Jen L. tripping down the hospital halls, and Renee married to Tim with 6 kids.

I see Jen Lewis still being picked on by us and complaining, and we see P.K., L.P. and M.M. still seeing sophomores.

I see Michael Hazen still wearing the same Stanford hat, and we will still be having unexpected parties at 251 Col. Hunt Dr.

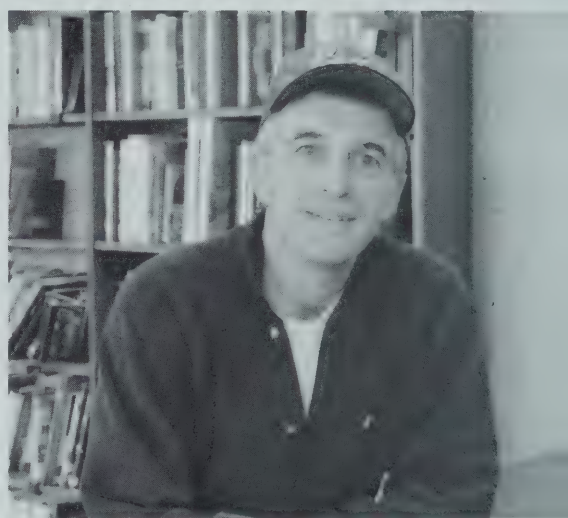

Mr. Mahoney's plants will still be alive even though I sprayed them with window cleaner. J.L. will still be at UMass having a good time.
